

PROF. JORDAN LEE

Renowned professor of literature with a focus on modernist poetry and its societal impacts.

Prof. Lee has published several influential papers and books, shaping contemporary understanding of 20th-century literary movements. His insightful analysis and passionate teaching have inspired a new generation of scholars and poets, making a lasting impact on the field of literature.